

Credit and Disclaimer for Dog and Cat Image Dataset

This dataset, comprising images of dogs and cats, has been meticulously compiled from various sources on the internet. It is presented as a resource for educational and research purposes, with the intent to foster learning and innovation within the community. The images have been carefully labelled with two categories: 'cat' and 'dog', to facilitate ease of use.

We extend our gratitude to the countless photographers and creators whose work has contributed to this collection. While the dataset is freely available for use, we urge users to respect the original creators' rights and to employ this dataset responsibly. It is not our intention to infringe upon copyright or to misappropriate any content. We encourage users to further verify the copyright status of each image before use in commercial projects.

Please be advised that while we have made every effort to ensure the accuracy of the labels, there may be instances of mislabelling. Users are encouraged to report any such occurrences so that we can continually improve the dataset's reliability.

We offer this dataset with the hope that it will be a valuable asset to those who use it. We appreciate the community's support and contributions, which are vital in maintaining and enhancing this resource.

Thank you for your interest and for upholding the spirit of collaboration and respect that underpins this project.

This is an open source Dataset so please feel free to contribute if you are interested

Thank You
